VOLUME 62, NO. 1 | JANUARY 2016 | BUSINESS MEETINGS ON 2ND FRIDAY

En hilsen fra Presidenten

Next month, this space could be blank.

Nordahl Grieg Lodge needs someone to step forward and serve as President for 2016.

Kjære Venner (Dear Friends),

Well, here I am again! I was hopeful that a new President or Co-Presidents would be greeting you and wishing each of you a Godt Nytt År.

But, it is not to be at this time. The Nominating Committee is still working hard to seek a candidate or two to fill this important leadership role. Without this important person, our Lodge will flounder.

In the meantime, I feel obligated to provide temporary leadership and guidance to the Lodge, even if it is with some personal and physical difficulty. We have great people in our Lodge, and a hard-working cadre of officers, who want to preserve the many positive aspects of Nordahl Grieg. But, this cannot be done without dedicated leadership. So, help us out by carefully considering if you could fill this role and/or identifying or seeking out members who might serve willingly and capably.

We have a great Lodge! Being President entails work, but it also provides the opportunity for wonderful and meaningful relationships. I have been pleased to be your President for the past three years and value the time we have spent together. But, it is time for new leadership. Can we count on YOU?

Fraternally,
Shirley Shoup,
Outgoing President and Counselor-Elect

Nyheter Fra Solveig Club

Tusen Takk* for another successful bazaar!

The Solveig Club is grateful for all the volunteers who helped with set-up, sales, and clean-up at our Lutefisk Dinner Bazaar. These wonderful people are Vicki Everly, Sharon Bratton, Anna Likens, Erline Mello, Meg Laycock, Marcia Hulberg, Shirley Shoup, Sharee Frost, Julie Lang, Harriet Candelaria, Nora Frost, Shirley Shoup, and Duane Adams.

We also extend a big thank you to the generous people who donated items for our raffle drawing: Shari Sullivan, Bonnie Hardy, Kari Warner, Dave Melius, Claire Smyth, and Ginny Hansen.

If we accidently missed anyone, we apologize. Your help is truly appreciated.

Finally, a very special THANK YOU to Vicki Everly and Sharon Bratton for their extraordinary dedication and countless hours of hard work in the planning and execution of the Lutefisk Dinner Bazaar and the Anniversary Dinner Boutique. In 2015, funds raised were used to provide Camp Trollfjell camperships and college scholarships for our youth, and to provide cash donations to the Nordahl Grieg Capital Improvement Fund and Camp Norge. These two women are central to Solveig Club's success. Mange tusen takk!

Now on to the New Year! I will try my best to fill the shoes of our most delightful outgoing president Elderid Everly. who served a long and dedicated term of committed leadership. Our next meeting will be a potluck luncheon on Wednesday, January 20 at 11:30 AM in the Solveig Room. We're always happy to have new members, so please join us.

Ha det bra,
Duane Adams, Incoming Solveig Club President

Membership Update

Due to computer challenges… this month's article will be short and sweet.

Last month we had no new members and only a couple of delinquent members, and it is too early to receive the December report from Minneapolis. I happen to know that Fred Hymans, our Financial Benefits Counselor, signed up seven new members at our Lutefisk Dinner. He deserves a well-deserved "atta-boy" for that achievement. I will list the names of our new members in next month's Tidende.

I did receive a message from Mary Lou Dumbas, a life member from Lincoln, Washington. She asked me not to mail her the Tidende anymore as she is moving to Norway to live with her daughter and son-in-law.

I will write a more extensive report next month.

News About Members

GOOD NEWS

Congratulations to Russ Behel! He has been recognized by the District 6 Board of Directors for his many years of service to Camp Trollfjell as Director. He was presented a plaque at the Lutefisk Dinner by our Zone Director, Carol Campbell, which Russ richly deserved.

A little Viking has arrived! Jessica Hansen Siler and her husband welcomed Austin on December 18. He weighed 7 pounds, 1 ounce and joins his big brother, TJ, who is going on 3 years. Grandma Elizebeth Hansen has been up in Oregon helping out and Great-Grandma Ginny Hansen will be heading that way for a visit over the New Year.

HEALTH NEWS

We have recently learned that Hans Skogheim, one of our favorite people, has moved into an assisted living facility in Florida. His wife, Rakel, is residing in a Memory Support Unit close by. We have missed them since they moved to Florida to be near their daughter. We send them our love and best wishes!

We hope all of you will have a healthy 2016!

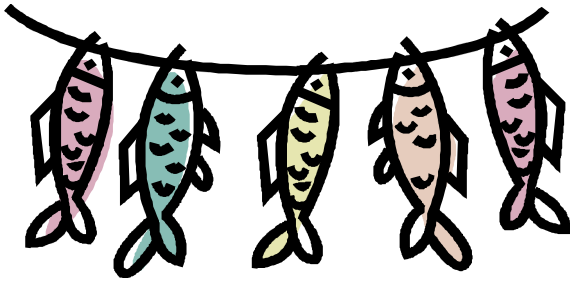
LUTEFISK THANK YOU



We had another great year, thanks to the hard work and dedication of so many. Whether or not you're mentioned by name, know that your contributions are greatly appreciated. We couldn't do it without each and every one of you! It takes teamwork to make an event like this successful, and everyone pulled together to get the job done.

As usual, Kari Warner handled publicity, reservations and ticket sales with warmth and personal attention that makes our members and guests feel appreciated and cared for. After many years, she says it's time to retire from this responsibility but we hope she'll still be involved, providing advice and guidance as needed. We owe Kari a great debt of gratitude for everything she's done over the years. Thanks to Barbara Shoup for stepping up to the task and working with Kari this year. We know she'll be ready to make the transition next year.

Harry and JoAnn Bjerkhoel are instrumental in so many ways. They provide planning and guidance, security and entertainment. They make sure we get the lutefisk we need and that it arrives on time. They're always there, working hard, at every stage from set-up to clean-up. Harry and Leland Bjerkhoel provide the entertainment on Saturday night that keeps many of our members and guests coming back and provides the opportunity for all of us to celebrate. What would we ever do without you? Harry and JoAnn had a special treat when 50 relatives, most unannounced, showed up for Saturday dinner and festivities.

Once again, the Committee Chairs handled production with the usual challenges. Janie Kelly handled meatballs and set a record for production with her dedicated crew. Vicki Everly and Sharon Bratton handled lefse production, while assisting with care for their mother after her recent stroke. We missed seeing Elderid Everly at her usual station during lefse prep and at the raffle but were delighted to see her for dinner on Saturday, along with 30 family members spanning five generations. Once again, Sheryl Hawes and Leslie Jones handled cookies, attending to myriad details. Despite a slow start and some problems with recipes, they set a record for cookie production.

The Solveig Club handled table settings, the bazaar, and raffle. All were a great success, with the bazaar setting an all-time record in sales. Thank you shoppers!

Harry Bjerkhoel and the cook crew were fantastic in every regard. As was Victoria Slama and the kitchen crew. They kept things humming both nights, through thick and thin. And where would we be without Kate and Don Slama? They kept the dining hall running smoothly, despite some challenges.

Not enough can be said about Dave Melius who, once again, did a great job with the bar. His planning and organization are key, in addition to hard work and a friendly smile. Fred Hymans was a big help with his congenial nature and menu of specialty drinks, all the while recruiting several new members for our Lodge.

Kathy Whitesel handled decorations as she has for the past few years, and they were great. She's so creative with her theme of "Northern Lights," even decorating the Italian cypress at the front of the building. The Lodge purchased an artificial tree this year which looks great and will save money because it can be used year after year; that's in addition to avoiding the mess that comes from the typical tree. Kathy also handled trash recycling with her usual good-natured, positive attitude. It's a critical job that not many would be willing to tackle.

Special thanks to Becky Bennett for putting up curtains in the kitchen. The kitchen gets really hot on sunny days and the curtains will make it much more comfortable.

Special thanks also to Harry Bjerkhoel, who used his craftsmanship and carpentry skills to make trivets as door prizes for the lutefisk ticket drawing which is held at each seating. We know they were popular with the lucky recipients.

And, we can't thank Shirley Shoup enough for cheerfully washing the laundry after lutefisk each year. It's a big job that includes not only towels and aprons but all the mesh bags used to cook potatoes and lutefisk. Thanks so much Shirley!

There are so many others, from those who helped with set-up and clean-up, served cookies and bread, provided wine service, staffed the coat room, and handled parking. There's purchasing and accounting and so many other tasks. Mange tusen takk til alle!!

…Larry Hulberg, Lutefisk Dinner Co-Chair

To our Volunteers... We say Tusen Takk!

Each year, we try to thank everyone who made this year's Lutefisk Dinner another great event. It truly takes a team effort to get everything to run smoothly from the planning and staging… to taking down the cook tent… the clean-up… and packing everything away for the next year. Hjertelig Takk – heartfelt thanks – to all who contributed time and talent to the 2015 Lutefisk Dinner! We have tried our best to include everyone and sincerely apologize if we missed anyone.

International Architecture Competition Underway for New Viking Museum

In September Norway's Minister of Education and Research, Torbjørn Røe Isaksen, officially announced the opening of an architectural competition for a new Viking Age Museum at Bygdøy in Oslo.

A companion to the Museum of Cultural History, which is part of the University of Oslo, the current Viking Ship Museum in Bygdøy is a tourist destination boasting a rich collection of Viking Age artifacts including the Tune, Oseberg, and Gokstad ships. Fittingly, the current building was also the product of an architectural competition, won by prominent Norwegian architect, Arnstein Arneberg in 1913.

Due to a lack of sufficient space as well as the need for structural upgrades, in 2013, the Norwegian government began evaluating how best to expand and preserve the current building at Bygdøy and consolidate collections from the Viking Ship Museum as well as the Museum of Cultural History. With the creation of a new Viking Age Museum, the Norwegian government hopes to create a globally leading center for the dissemination of knowledge about the Viking Age and ensure future generations' access to it.

The Ministry of Education and Research has tasked Statsbygg (the Directorate of Public Construction and Property Management) with management of the architectural competition to create the new facility and a winner will be selected in March of 2016. Architectural submissions must take into account several requirements that include:

- Finding solutions that secure and preserve the Viking collection for future generations in a professional manner, while also creating good conditions for display to the public.
- Ensuring architectural quality and expressions that reflect the importance of the building.
- Finding good environmental solutions that facilitate and minimize the museum facility's overall environmental footprint.
- Finding solutions that combine the old and the new building in an appropriate way.

Set to comprise roughly 13,000 square meters, the entire facility will be nearly three times larger than the current museum at Bygdøy upon completion in autumn of 2017.

…from SON Newsletter Service

To the people who do the lutefisk dinner:

I purchased two tickets – for me and my son, but when the day came, I was ill and so just my son went. I called Kari Warner and asked if there was someone on a waiting list that needed a ticket (if sold out) they were welcome to mine. She said "no" and suggested a plate be sent home with my son.

So I got this bountiful plate and am so thankful that you would do that for someone. How nice of you all to do that.

Thanks, again. Delphine Wishart
