VOLUME 63, NO. 7 | JULY 2017 | BUSINESS MEETINGS ON 2ND FRIDAY

En hilsen fra Presidenten

Kjære Venner (Dear Friends),

Summer is here… Summer is here! How is this year zooming by so fast? I hope everyone has enjoyed the first half of this year. We have accomplished so much as a lodge but have many more fun activities for the second half of the year to look forward to.

On Sunday, July 16 we will have our first attempt as a lodge to have a combined Business Meeting/Social event with our Ice Cream Social. I'm looking forward to leading the lodge in this new adventure and I hope that we can have more combined events in the future. I hope to see as many lodge members as possible at our Ice Cream Social to start off this new adventure together.

I want to finish this message by saying tusen takk to our wonderful Co-Editors Vicki Everly and Sharee Frost. Our Tidende is always so well done and I know that I would never want to attempt the task of putting it together every month. I also want to apologize for turning in my message late almost every month. I will strive to adhere to the deadline in the future.

Hope to see many of you on Sunday, July 16 for the Ice Cream Social Business Meeting.

Fraternally,
Laura Porter, President

Munch & his Mentor

Gunnar Germundson is a playwright from Norway here in Northern California with a play titled Munch & his Mentor in celebration of the Munch exhibit at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA).

The play is about Edvard Munch's bohemian years and circles around events shared with his mentor Hans Jaeger. It investigates how Munch found his style and the courage to keep going.

Before each show there will be a 20-minute talk about the process of producing the play, and after the show there will be a talk-back session from the actors.

Performances are on July 8 and 9 at the Spreckles Performing Arts Center in Rohnert Park.

Nyheter Fra Solveig Club

Our annual "Thank You Luncheon" at the Blue Pheasant restaurant on June 21 included a special birthday celebration for the two beautiful ladies shown here. Long time Solveig Club members Gracie Larsen (on right) and Elderid Everly (on left) both celebrated their 96th birthdays – Gracie's in June and Elderid's in May! Congratulations again to the birthday girls.

We didn't receive any applications for our college scholarships this year so we've extended the deadline until August 15. Please refer to the May or June issues of the Tidende for eligibility criteria and application procedures. Our scholarships are available to daughters and granddaughters of any Nordahl Grieg lodge members in good standing. Please note that membership in the Solveig Club is NOT a requirement to apply for this scholarship!

Wishing you all a safe and fun-filled 4th of July.

Beste hilsen,
Duane Adams, Solveig Club President

Membership Update

There are no new members this month. I am, however, currently working with SON International about a member transferring into our lodge.

Member Pamela Johnson transferred to Freya lodge #62 in Santa Rosa, CA

Here's a new address for Hans Skogheim:
3058 Merrill Avenue, Clearwater, FL 33759

We have two members who have achieved Golden Member status: Meg Laycock and Norman Hulberg.

The memberships of Marion Chaeff and Karl Owen have been suspended by SON International for non-payment of dues.

Many of you know that June and Homer Stennes have been assisting me for several years by mailing out the Tidende every month. They are presently in Minnesota for two weeks attending a school reunion and a 150 year home-town anniversary celebration. The following week they are attending a wedding. I hope they are having a great time.

We have lost our supplier of membership name badges. Until further notice, I cannot order name badges; however, we have a couple of people doing research for a new source.

We presently have 264 members, including Juvenile Members with active insurance.

Fraternally,
Kari Warner, Financial Secretary

Nordahl Grieg's goal for 2017 is 27 new members
and we're counting on you to help.

Plans are underway to combine our October 27 Lodge Social with a New Member Recruitment event.

If you can't make it to the Social, then recruit a new member today! Application forms are available from Karen Aaker at 831-454-8509

Together we can do it!

SONS OF NORWAY

☺ Sven and Ole were building a house. Sven was holding a board and Ole was sawing it. All of a sudden, the saw slipped and cut off one of Sven's ears. They both were digging through the sawdust to find it, and Ole picked up an ear. Ole says, "Is this it? Sven says, "Naw, mine had a pencil behind it."

SON Foundation Heritage and Culture Grant Awarded to Nordahl Grieg Leikarring

As mentioned before in the Tidende, the Sons of Norway Foundation offers several kinds of grants to lodges and individuals. One of our lodge members, Rich Pierson, is also an active dancer with the Nordahl Grieg Leikarring and has been very interested in encouraging more people to try out folk dancing. Last winter Rich applied to the Foundation for a Heritage and Culture grant that would allow the Leikarring to offer scholarships to first-time attendees at our weekend Folkedans Stevne workshops, particularly to dancers who would like to work on their Cultural Skills pins. The application included letters of support from Shirley Shoup of our lodge, and a Salt Lake City SON member who leads a folk dance group there and has attended the workshops several times with his wife.

Rich received word in the spring that the application had been successful. Unfortunately, the closing of Camp Norge and resulting confusion as we sought other accommodations meant that the Leikarring didn't have time to advertise the scholarships before the workshop in April. For the fall workshop, we hope to have up to four enthusiastic dancers who are attending our weekend for the first time. Maybe you can be one of them!

Error in Google Maps Sends Hundreds to Small Norwegian Village

Today's technology offers mapping applications that make traveling to unknown or hard to reach destinations easier than ever before. Google Maps, for example, provides its users with features like 3D angles, street level views, and multiple routing options, all through the convenience of your mobile device. So what could possibly go wrong? Well, with even the smallest of mapping glitches you could consequently find yourself on the wrong side of a fjord.

That's exactly what happened to hundreds of confused travelers seeking the famous Preikestolen cliff in Western Norway. Due to a simple error in Google Maps, these travelers were instead sent to the small, quiet village of Fossmark – 30 kilometers away, on the other side of a fjord.

Although the cliff formation can be seen from the tiny village, it is a long, narrow, winding country road away from the picture-perfect views. Village residents have had to redirect long lines of minibuses, cars, and hopeful visitors who have flooded the town with no idea of the miscalculation. One man living in the area told the local newspaper, Stavanger Aftenblad, that in the summer season up to 10 to 15 cars show up each day.

The Preikestolen cliff, home to one of the most visited tourist attractions in Norway, receives up to 200,000 visitors each year. Rising more than 600 meters above the Lysefjord, Preikestolen is a steep cliff with a large flat summit making it an ideal location for tourists wanting to capture that once in a lifetime view.

A spokesperson for Google released a statement saying the company will resolve the mapping issue as soon as possible and encouraging others to report similar errors. Also, due to the increased popularity of the cliff, there is currently a project in progress to help improve the path to the site, which is only accessible by a 3.8 kilometer hike.

NEWS RELEASE

Camp Norge Re-Opening

Bridge Construction on Schedule!

Alta, CA, June 22, 2017: Placer County Department of Public Works announced today that construction on the new Morton Road Bridge over Canyon Creek will be completed very close to on schedule. The bridge will be officially open to the public effective July 1, 2017.

A torrential rainstorm in January washed out the road, creating an 80 ft. wide and 40 ft. deep chasm that cut off public access to the Sons of Norway Recreation Center (known as Camp Norge) as well as multiple families living in the area. Only residents and emergency vehicles have been allowed into the area since.

"[The bridge completion] is great news!" said Mary Beth Ingvoldstad, President of Sons of Norway District Six, the fraternal organization which owns Camp Norge. "We've had to cancel or postpone hundreds of reservations including our annual children's' camps. We plan to have fun with the ribbon cutting ceremony with lots of Norwegian flags and costumes." said Ingvoldstad. The county plans the ribbon cutting ceremony for July 5.

Camp Norge, a 46 acre family camp, was founded in 1957 by members of the Norwegian cultural heritage group. According to Fred Hymans, President of the Recreation Center Board, the camp itself was not damaged by the storm and will be "more beautiful than ever thanks to all the rainfall" over the winter and spring seasons. "Plans for the annual Kretstevne (family gathering) celebrations are under way as normal" said Hymans. "We hope to see more people than usual this year."

Contact Fred Hymans, fred@campnorge.org, 916-412-3797 for more information about the camp.
For camp reservations call 530-389-2508 or www.campnorge.org.

Oslo Airport Debuts Newer, Greener Terminal

Norway is often on the cutting edge of efficient and sustainable construction and development, and the recent development at Avinor Oslo Airport is no exception.

Dubbed the world's greenest airport, the expansion has cut energy consumption by more than 50 percent – a notable achievement considering the building has doubled in size from its original 1998 footprint and increased the annual passenger capacity from 19 million to 30 million. It is also the first airport to earn an "Excellent" rating in BREEAM (Building Research Establishment Environmental Assessment Method).

How did architects realize such a significant energy savings? Nordic – Office of Architecture, which was responsible for the project, began with the fundamentals of the building shape. Often airports feature large windows, which offer sprawling views, but are costly due to temperature gains and losses. To mitigate inefficiencies, planners consulted sun studies, improved insulation, and minimized solar impact with glazing and a sloped wooden roof. The project also relies heavily on natural lighting in favor of round-the-clock artificial lighting. The airport's most unique and innovative energy solution makes use of something that is plentiful in winter – snow. Snow harvested from runways will be kept in an insulated reservoir system to cool the terminal in the heat of summer.

Just as important as the form are the materials that were used to construct the new terminal. The firm sourced timber from local forests, utilized recycled steel, and made environmentally friendly concrete with volcanic ash. These efforts reduced the building's carbon dioxide emissions by 35 percent.

Gifts for the Royal Couple

King Harald and Queen Sonja are celebrating their 80th birthdays. This means famous guests, parties and gifts.

King Harald has already turned 80. Queen Sonja will be 80 on July 4. On Tuesday and Wednesday they will celebrate together. Royal guests are coming from Europe. So are selected people from companies in Norway. They are having dinner with the royal couple at the Opera on Wednesday. Heidi Kristin Mathisen from the company Tine is one of them.

"It's an honor to be invited for dinner," she says to addressa.no. She thought her partner was playing a trick on her. He'd delivered the envelope with a sly grin.

The dinner is a gift from the government to the royal couple. 300 guests will attend. Many will give gifts. The royal couple will have several performances. They are called "Summer." The performances will be shown from May to September. They will take place at Oscar Hall on Bygdøy. The gifts are from several theaters and orchestras. Everyone may attend the performances.

On Tuesday there is a lot happening at the Palace Square in Oslo. Everyone can come and have ice cream, according to Channel TV 2. Children will sing and there will be a drill show with baton twirlers. The celebration starts at 5:30 PM. The royal couple will come out to wave. Then you can also see royal guests. They come from countries like Sweden, Denmark, and the U.K., reports news agency NTB.

Guests will have dinner at the palace. Wednesday, you can see them again, if you're lucky. They will eat on the royal ship Norway. Then there will be a gala dinner at the Opera, according to the royal blog. The government will give more gifts. They are giving a photo exhibition with pictures of Queen Maud, according to hegnar.no. The channel NRK will spend a lot of time covering the royal couple. They will broadcast directly from the celebration.

The king received "regular" presents on his birthday in February, according to weekly magazine Se og Hør. "The biggest gift was spending time with their children and grandchildren," said Anders Stavseng. He is the magazine's expert on the royal family.

Dette får kongeparet i gave

Kong Harald og dronning Sonja feirer 80 år. Det betyr kjente gjester, fest og gaver.

Kong Harald har fylt 80 år allerede. Dronning Sonja blir 80 år 4. juli. Tirsdag og onsdag feirer de sammen. Kongelige gjester fra Europa kommer. Det gjør også utvalgte folk fra bedrifter i Norge. De får spise middag med kongeparet i Operaen onsdag. Heidi Kristin Mathisen fra selskapet Tine er én av dem.

– Det er en ære å bli invitert til middagen, sier hun til adressa.no. Hun trodde samboeren lurte henne. Han leverte konvolutten med et lurt smil.

Middagen er en gave fra regjeringen til kongeparet. 300 gjester kommer. Flere vil gi gaver. Kongeparet får flere forestillinger. De får navnet «Sommer». Forestillingene skal vises fra mai til september. Det skjer på Oscarshall på Bygdøy. Gaver er fra flere teatre og orkester. Forestillingene kan ses av alle.

Tirsdag skjer det mye på Slottsplassen i Oslo. Alle kan komme, og de får is, ifølge kanalen TV 2. Barn skal synge og det blir show med drill. Feiringen starter 17.30. Kongeparet kommer ut for å vinke. Da kan du også se kongelige gjester. De kommer fra land som Sverige, Danmark, og Storbritannia, melder nyhetsbyrået NTB.

Gjestene får middag på Slottet. Onsdag kan du se dem igjen, om du er heldig. De skal spise på kongeskipet Norge. Så blir det festmiddag på Operaen, ifølge kongebloggen. Regjeringen vil gi mer i gaver. De gir en fotoutstilling med bilder av dronning Maud. Det skriver hegnar. no. Kanalen NRK skal bruke mye tid på kongeparet. De vil sende direkte fra feiringen.

Kongen fikk «vanlige» gaver på bursdagen sin i februar. Det skrev ukebladet Se og Hør. – Den største gaven var nok å bruke tid med barn og barnebarn, sa Anders Stavseng. Han er bladets ekspert på kongehuset.
