VOLUME 69, NO. 4 | APRIL 2023 | BUSINESS MEETINGS AS ANNOUNCED

En hilsen fra Nordahl Grieg Presidenten

My Fellow Members,

After the realization had sunk in, the one thing I dreaded about this role was having to announce the death of a member. In the paraphrased words of past President Laura Porter, every time we drape the charter, it's more likely to be someone that I know.

As you now know, that was recently manifested in Reality. I could get philosophical about this, but we have a lot of good stuff for you in this issue, so I'll just dust off an old social theme suggestion and invite you all to the Shirley Shoup Memorial Hot Dish & Jell-O Mold Celebration! See the announcement on page 2, and dust off your tube pans, whip up your prize-winning recipes, and come share your memories of Shirley at this after-Easter springtime potluck.

Fraternally,

Kathy Whitesel, President

God Påske! - Happy Easter!

Easter is one of Norway's biggest holidays, just as big as Christmas. The entire country seems to shut down during the week of Easter to enjoy the holiday with family, friends, and nature. The Norwegians' idea of having a god påske consists of hiding away up in the mountains, skiing the last available snow, or basking in a wall of early spring sunshine known as solveggen.

Påskeaften, Easter Eve on Holy Saturday, is the big day of celebration. Children get to open large colorful Easter eggs filled with candy, families organize ski races and hikes in the mountains, and the biggest meal of the week concludes the day with an Easter lamb or chicken.

Easter Sunday gets underway with a special breakfast at the family hytte (cabin) or at home, sometimes followed by church. It is common to enjoy homemade Easter bread on Sunday. Pastel-colored Easter bunnies, chickens, daffodils, and eggs cover the table to set the mood. No Easter break is complete without the popular påskekrim (Easter crime) novel.

In Memoriam - Shirley Shoup

(December 10, 1930 - February 20, 2023)

Shirley Marilyn Frederickson Howard Shoup was born on December 10, 1930 in Everett, Washington. She and her two younger sisters, Monica and Arlene, were raised on a farm in Stanwood, Washington, a Norwegian-American community. Her parents were Albert and Hilda Frederickson.

Shirley always talked about being a nurse from the time she was about 12 years old. She never wavered from this goal, and after graduating from the University of Washington with her B.A. in 1953, she spent several years in the Seattle area working in various nursing jobs. In 1956, she went to the University of Minnesota and spent a year there working for a master's degree in nursing education. She came back to Seattle and worked at the University of Washington as a nursing instructor. After her marriage to Ray Howard, she became an instructor at University of Nevada at Reno. Shirley helped many friends and family with their medical issues. Always the nurse and willing to help, she spent several years as the camp nurse at Camp Norge, too.

All four of Shirley's grandparents were immigrants from Norway, arriving in the U.S in the 1890's. One set settled in North Dakota, and the other set homesteaded in the Silvana/ Stanwood, Washington area. Norwegian culture and food were very valued in the home.

Shirley married Bill Shoup in 1984. After moving to San Jose in 1993, the couple joined Sons of Norway and became active members, serving several offices, and were always involved in the lutefisk dinners. She was the treasurer of the Solveig Club and longtime Sunshine Chair for the lodge. Shirley enjoyed the social activities and the many friends she met. She was also a volunteer with Friends of Opera San Jose.

Shirley also was devoted to the members of the Howard and Shoup families. All of them received birthday cards and other cards and phone calls for their various special days. Her memory was remarkable! She enjoyed helping others in any way she could. It was a little more difficult for her to accept help from others.

Shirley had a long, productive life. She lived in several places, travelled to many places in the U.S., and enjoyed her trip to Norway in 1992 with her sister Monica. They were able to locate relatives from all four of their grandparents' families. They enjoyed the culture and beautiful scenery, food, and friendly people.

Shirley will be missed, but she left her legacy of being a good citizen who cared for everyone around her.

Celebration of Life for Shirley H. Shoup

A celebration of Shirley's life will be held at Nordahl Hall on Sunday, April 16 beginning at 2:00 PM. Friends, family, and acquaintances along with Sons of Norway and Daughters of Norway members are invited to come and gather to remember our dear friend. This event is organized by Kathy Whitesel and Judy Purrington, along with Nordahl Grieg Lodge's Solveig Club.

The event will be a potluck, and those who would like may bring a main dish, side dish, appetizer, or dessert to share. We'll have coffee and punch available near the potluck table. The cash bar will also be open for those who would like soft drinks or alcoholic beverages.

Editor's Note: It was usually Shirley who wrote this kind of announcement. She kept in touch with many of our members and always had updates about births, deaths, illnesses, vacations, and more. We are fortunate to have had many wonderful years with Shirley, and we will miss her dearly!

2022 Annual Hall Board Report and To Do List Presented to Shareholders on March 3, 2023

The Annual Report for 2022 was presented to the Lodge membership on Friday, March 3, 2023 at the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of Nordahl Hall, Inc., by Hall Board President Dave Melius.

If you are a member of the Lodge, you are a shareholder of Nordahl Hall, Inc.

The Annual Report is presented every March and informs the shareholders of the structure of the Hall Board. It also contains a summary of the financial status of Nordahl Hall, Inc., a summary of various expenses and tasks over the previous year, and a few projections of future expenses and projects.

In this spirit, the Board created a "To Do List", which lists various tasks the Board believes are essential for the future of the Hall. It's separated into three groups: Open Tasks, Tasks In Progress, and Dream Tasks.

Open Tasks are those tasks that the Board has identified as being most important and/or urgent, but are not started.

Tasks In Progress are those tasks that someone has decided to champion and have been started.

Dream Tasks are those tasks that we don't have the current resources to perform, but we don't want to ignore.

If anyone would like to help with any of these tasks, please let the Board know. We're always looking for volunteers.

The current To Do List is:

OPEN TASKS

Do-able jobs with no one championing them

2. Paint the Solveig Room ceiling

6. Paint parking lot fences
7. Repair or replace rear double door

A TASTE OF NORWAY

Volunteer Opportunities & Raffle Donation Update

I hope you're getting excited for A TASTE OF NORWAY at Nordahl Hall, on Saturday, May 20! Please come to enjoy our Syttende Mai Nordic Festival at Nordahl Grieg Lodge, with a day of celebrating our Norwegian-American heritage. For years, we had Norway Day in the Bay Area to get together and commemorate our heritage with culture, foods, and more. Ours is a one-day event with as many elements of the original as we can manage. We look forward to a fun day.

To do that, we need volunteers to help the day go smoothly. Please consider volunteering before, during, and/or after the event. So far, we haven't had any volunteers make contact, so please consider giving a few hours of your time to help make the event a success. Adults and youth are welcome to join the team. Give us a call or send a message, and we'll help you settle on volunteer tasks to suit you. (Also, remember, we can sign off volunteer time for your school or service club requirements.)

We've started receiving some donations for the A TASTE OF NORWAY Raffle, and we're thankful for that. We still need more, so if you have something to donate that could become someone else's treasure, please let us know.

Of course, there will be set-up and disassembly happening, and those who can help with that will be most appreciated. There are also opportunities helping prepare the delicious delights for Elderid's Café and all the tasks that come with that. We'll be doing set-up on Thursday, May 18 and Friday, May 19 so we're ready to open the event at 10:00 AM on Saturday, May 20. We'll have booths and activities, and our volunteers will help all go smoothly. While we'll try to clean up as much as possible at the end of the event, we also need some volunteers to finish up on Sunday, May 21. Contact us with your availability for set-up and clean-up activities. We're flexible, time-wise.

To volunteer, please call or email one of the Event Co-Chairs: (If you're sending an email, please mention the event in the subject line; and if you leave a voice mail, please also mention the event.)

World's First Fully Electric Public Transit System

By the end of 2023, Norway hopes to have the world's first fully electric public transit system. The city has invested in 450 electric buses to replace the remaining diesel-fueled buses. While the upfront costs of US $51.3 million are higher than the price of diesel buses, they believe there will be great long-term savings as electric buses have lower maintenance and operation costs. The public transport authority for Oslo is also confident that the new buses will be more comfortable and quieter for passengers. This move is expected to not only reduce emissions but also improve public health by reducing air pollution.

It is part of Norway's grand plan to be emissions-free by 2030. Many would say Norway is on the right track as electric vehicles in Norway now outnumber gas cars on Oslo's roads. They have become a "global pioneer for the green transportation revolution," hoping that other cities will follow suit to shift away from fossil fuel use.

Hazelnut Toscakaka

A twist on the classic Norwegian almond cake

Submitted by Christopher Mohs,
Vikingland Lodge 1-495, Detroit Lakes, MN

Ingredients

For the cake
4 extra large eggs
1 1/4 cups granulated sugar
1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
2/3 cup butter

For the topping
2/3 cup hazelnuts (roughly chopped)
1/2 cup granulated sugar
3 Tbsp. milk
1 Tbsp. all-purpose flour

Directions

Preheat the oven to 350ºF. For the cake, melt butter and set aside to cool. Whisk the eggs and sugar together until light yellow and fluffy. Add the flour and melted butter until just combined. Pour the batter into a springform pan lined with parchment paper and bake for about 45 minutes. Check to see if it's done by inserting a toothpick or wooden skewer into the cake. If it comes out clean, the cake is done. If batter sticks, bake for an additional 5 minutes and test again.

When done, remove the cake from the oven but leave it in the springform pan. For the topping, place all topping ingredients into a saucepan and bring to a boil. Once a boil is achieved, immediately pour the mixture onto the cake and spread evenly across the top. Return the cake to the oven and continue baking, only using the top heat (broiler) if possible until it looks golden brown, about 5-10 minutes.

Remove from the oven and allow it to cool before removing from the springform pan. Enjoy!

This recipe and more may be found on Christopher's blog Pumpernickel & Rye.

Norske ordspråk - Norwegian Proverbs

Dei beste vennane er det færrast av.
The best friends are the fewest ones.

Dei som sår noko, dei får noko.
Those who sow something, they get something.

Den eine tenesta er den andre verdt.
One good turn is worth another.

Den som berre ser på himmelen, dett i koll på jorda.
He who merely looks at the sky, falls over here on earth.

Den som blir brent, blir redd elden.
Who is burnt, shuns fire.

Den som bur under glastak, skal ikkje kaste stein på andre.
Who lives under a glass roof, should not throw stones at others.

Den som einsleg ror, han einsleg fiskar.
Who rows alone, fishes alone.
